

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS:

New York State Election Law requires ALL candidates and political committees to file statements disclosing information about contributions received and expenditures made in connection with an election.

- If the combined total of contributions received and expenditures made is $1001 or more, you must file with the State Board of Elections.
- If the combined total of contributions received and expenditures made is between $51 - $1000 you must file with your local Board of Elections.
- If the combined total of contributions received and expenditures made is $50 or less you must file a CF-05 form with your local Board of Elections.

The forms required to register a committee and to report receipts and disbursements, as well as a comprehensive handbook of instructions, are available at the State Board of Elections and your county Board of Elections.

View the Campaign Finance Page www.elections.ny.gov/CampaignFinance.html for more information on financial disclosure requirements or contact the State Board of Elections at 1-800-458-3453 or 518-474-8200 or contact your county board of elections.
